MANAGEMENT CHANGES AT MERRIMACK VALLEY CREDIT UNION

LAWRENCE, MASS. —Merrimack Valley Credit Union (MVCU) has made some key management changes and transfers within the credit union branches.

Carrie Fitzgerald and Erin Antonino are both remaining in their respective Branch Manager roles, but have changed branches. Fitzgerald, a 15 year veteran of the Credit Union, has transferred to the Plaistow Branch. While leading this location, she will promote teamwork among her staff to increase the level of member service at the branch even further.

Antonino is now at the helm of the Central Plaza Branch in Haverhill, having transferred from the North Andover Branch. She will bring her talent for creating a warm, member-focused approach to this new team and segment of the membership.

Moving into a management role is Kim D'Agata, the new Branch Manager at the North Andover Mall location. D'Agata started with MVCU as a teller in 2002, and has held roles with increasing responsibility since joining the Credit Union. As the Branch Manager, she brings more than a decade of member service experience to this position. She is now responsible for managing the existing team of tellers and member service representatives.

Nancy Pierce has transferred to Branch Operations from her position as the Branch Manager in Plaistow. In her new role as Branch Operations Manager in the corporate office, she will be responsible for developing policies and procedures to deliver a higher level of service to members.
