“Merrimack College is fortunate to continue its partnership with Merrimack Valley Credit Union into a second decade,” said Davis. “A proud supporter of Merrimack Athletics, MVCU's leadership is committed to educating and engaging Merrimack's students about the importance of financial literacy and professional development. We look forward to strengthening and growing our partnership as the College continues to grow.”

This marks the 11th year of the relationship between MVCU and Merrimack College. The sponsorship has grown to not only encompass events surrounding the hockey program, but now includes financial literacy initiatives for both undergraduate and graduate students, alumni and student outreach, and career development opportunities.

“Merrimack Valley Credit Union has been a proud supporter of Merrimack College for 11 years now,” said Peter Matthews, MVCU’s President and CEO. “The explosive growth we have seen in the college in the last few years is exciting, and has allowed us to grow our partnership. We look forward to what this next decade has to bring for the credit union’s partnership with the college.”
