MERRIMACK VALLEY CREDIT UNION CONTINUES LONG-TERM SUPPORT OF EMMAUS, INC.

Credit Union presents check for $30,000

LAWRENCE, MASS. — On Giving Tuesday, Merrimack Valley Credit Union (MVCU) made its 11th annual Corporate Partnership contribution to Haverhill-based Emmaus, Inc. MVCU was represented by president and CEO Peter Matthews, Jr., and Vice President of Marketing, Yean-Ai Long. They presented the check to Emmaus, Inc.'s Associate Director Leslie Lawrence, and Chief Development Officer Gretchen Arntz.

“Merrimack Valley Credit Union is proud to be able to support Emmaus in this capacity, and we’re humbled by the work they do for this vulnerable population in the Merrimack Valley,” said Matthews. “The team at Emmaus has a direct impact on the lives of men, women, and children, as they try to rebuild their lives with dignity. We will continue our support while they work to end homelessness in this region.”

The Credit Union is Emmaus' largest private corporate donor. The credit union matches the difference between what was pledged and what was collected through year-long fundraising efforts by the Credit Union's staff and the generosity of its membership.
