MERRIMACK VALLEY CREDIT UNION PARTICIPATES IN ANNUAL TURKEY BRIGADE

Credit Union sponsors and assists in delivery of Thanksgiving dinners to families in need

LAWRENCE, MASS. — On Wednesday, November 23, 15 Merrimack Valley Credit Union (MVCU) employees and family members spent the day delivering turkey dinners to families in need in the Merrimack Valley.

Participating in the Turkey Brigade, an event hosted by Ocasio's True Martial Arts in Haverhill, has become a tradition for members of the MVCU team. Ocasio's raises money all year long and collects donations of food for the Turkey Brigade baskets. The Credit Union contributed $2,000 toward the purchase of ingredients for the dinner baskets.

“The Turkey Brigade allows the team to help less fortunate families in the Merrimack Valley each Thanksgiving season,” said Brett Terry, Assistant Vice President of Lending and MVCU’s Turkey Brigade volunteer coordinator. “This year, more than 500 families in the Merrimack Valley received a complete turkey dinner. It’s a wonderful opportunity for us to give back to the community we serve.”
